

John Davidson

SENIOR POLICY ANALYST
CENTER FOR HEALTH CARE POLICY

AREA OF EXPERTISE

- Health Care

John Davidson is a senior health care policy analyst in the Center for Health Care Policy at the Texas Public Policy Foundation. He joined the Foundation in October 2012.

Davidson began his career in journalism, and has worked as a print and online reporter, managing and executive editor, and freelance writer for a wide variety of publications. He was Executive Editor for Issue Media Group, where he oversaw 19 weekly publications in the U.S. and Canada covering the creative economy, business innovation, and urban development.

A graduate of Hillsdale College, Davidson is a 2013 Lincoln Fellow of the Claremont Institute. His writing has appeared in National Review, Texas Monthly, First Things, Claremont Review of Books, n+1, and elsewhere.

SELECT PUBLICATIONS

- “Hold the Line: Protecting the States from ObamaCare”
- “Save Texas Medicaid: A Proposal for Fundamental Reform”
- “Medicine Sprawl”
- “States’ refusal to establish exchanges could undo Obamacare”

MEDIA APPEARANCES

- National Review
- Texas Monthly
- First Things
- The Daily Caller
- Dallas Morning News

PRODUCERS & JOURNALISTS CONTACT:

JOSHUA TREVIÑO Vice President of Communications
512.777.1845 cell | jtrevino@texaspolicy.com

CAROLINE ESPINOSA Director of Communications
703.589.4597 cell | cespinosa@texaspolicy.com

